

Rock Hill Capital Group Announces that James P. Wilson joined the firm as a Managing Director

HOUSTON (October 1, 2009) - Rock Hill Capital Group, LLC announced today that James P. Wilson has joined the firm as a Managing Director. Rock Hill Capital is a Houston based private equity fund investing in small to middle market companies located in the Southern United States. Rock Hill seeks to partner with strong entrepreneurial managers who are in need of patient capital and management expertise to assist them in the continued expansion and growth of their business. More detailed information on Rock Hill Capital can be found at www.rockhillcap.com.

Prior to joining Rock Hill, Mr. Wilson was a founder and Managing Partner of RSTW Partners ("RSTW") a Houston, Texas based mezzanine debt and private equity firm. Founded in 1989, RSTW raised a series of three institutional mezzanine funds totaling $875 million in committed capital.

Mr. Wilson has served on the Board of Regents of the Texas A&M University System since his appointment by Governor Rick Perry in June of 2007. He was elected Vice-Chairman of the Board of Regents in May 2009. Mr. Wilson is also a member of the Board for Lease of University Lands. Mr. Wilson also serves as the Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the 12th Man Foundation and is a member of the Mays Business School Development Council. He previously served as a member of the board of directors of the Texas Growth Fund, a private equity fund based in Austin, Texas, from 2007 through 2009.

Mr. Wilson received a BBA in Business Administration from Texas A&M University in 1981 and is a certified public accountant.
